FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

McGahey Charged with "Holding Up" Watchman English. Thomas McGahey, thirty-four years old, of 149 East Forty-first street, was raigned in the Yorkville Police Court this morning charged with the larceny of tip-ninth street. English is employed as at reduced prices. Also, on Fri-a watchman for Joan D. Crimmins, the day, June 29, and Saturday a watchman for Joan D. Crimmins, the contractor. In court this morning English told Justice Feitner that on Thursday night last McGahey and an unknown man accounted him at Fifty-ninth street and Eleventh avenue. The unknown held English while McGahey searched his pockets and found its. They then ran off.

English was hurt in the scuffle and went to Rooseveit Hospital for medical attendance. On Friday night he made the complaint to the police. Detective wawne, of the West Sixty-eighth street station, was assigned to the case, and he captured McGahey last night.

McGahey denied the charge this morning. He said that English, an ex-policeman named Maher and himself were drinking on the night in question.

Justice Feitner remanded McGahey for nurther examination.

MANY CARRIAGES BURNED.

Chamois Gloves, with large pearl buttons, formerly 98c., at Paulet's Repairing Works Completely Gutted. Edward Paulet's carriage repairing works, 637 and 639 East Sixteenth street, are a complete wreck owing to a fire which broke out last night and did $20,-000 bamage before it could be extin-Paulet's place is a one-story frame Friday and Saturday, Paulet's place is a one-story frame building. To the east of it there is a row of tenements, and to the west the buildings of the Avenue B Industrial School and the Children's Aid Society. A passing citizen saw a tongue of flame shoot from one of the windows of the carriage repairer's shop. He turned in the alarm. Before the engines arrived the flames were beyond control in the building where first discovered, and had spread to the one-story frame carpenter shop of Christopher Doerfher in the rear. the rear.

The Paulet building and the carpenter shop in the rear were gutted. Most of the loss will fall upon Paulet. There were forty carriages in his place being repaired. Of these only two were sayed. The cause of the fire is unknown.

RUNAWAY ON A SIDEWALK.

Horse and Milk Wagon Create Excitement in Fifty-third Street. A horse belonging to C. A. Beakes, of 210 East Fifty-seventh street, at-tached to a small milk wagon, was left standing on Fifty-third street, near standing on Fifty-third street, near Lexington avenue, at 9.30 o'clock this morning, while the driver was delivering milk. The horse took fright at some workmen engaged on the Lexington avenue cable, and started on a run down the sidewalk.

A deep trench dug along the street prevented him leaving the walk. The wheel of the wagon collided with a hydrant and tore it from its fastenwith a tree, which withstood the shock, amashing the wagon into fragments. With part of the broken wagon still dangling at his heels, the horse continued to the East Kiver before being captured. Several persons narrowly secaped being run down.
